VOILAH! 2018

The annual Voilah! French Festival Singapore, which showcases French art and cultural experiences around the island, opens on Sunday and runs until May 5.

This weekend, head to Gardens by the Bay for outdoor performance The Rock's Clown (right), starring Hossan Leong alongside Jean Lambert-Wild and Martin Palisse. The script by Catherine Lefeuve, translated by Marc Goldberg, is inspired by the myth of Sisyphus, who toils eternally to roll a heavy rock up a hill, as well as the relentless work of the common dung beetle.

Also look out for a showcase of photographs of the polar regions (above), Touched By The Cold, shot by photographer Michel Rawicki.
